

Hidden History Walk in the Wicklow Uplands

Sunday 18th August 2013

2.00pm sharp to 5.00pm (approx)

As part of Heritage Week 2013, Wicklow Uplands Council in co-operation with Roundwood Historical & Folklore Society is hosting a guided walk which will be led by local history experts. Starting at Castlekevin, travelling through the village of Annamoe, then traversing the old road to Derralossary, the walk will cover historical aspects & points of interest along the route. Segments of the walk will access land not usually open to the public.

The meeting point will be at the Parish Centre, Roundwood, Co Wicklow, and from there you will be transferred by minibus to Castlekevin to return on foot via Annamoe and Derralossary Church.

As spaces are limited, please pre-register by contacting Cara Heraty, WUC Co-ordinator by Wednesday 14th August.

Email: info@wicklowuplands.ie or phone: (01) 281 8406

Meeting Place: Car park at Roundwood Parish Hall
When: 2.00pm, Sunday 18th August

- Moderately strenuous, 6km walk
- Bring some snacks and refreshments and dress for the weather
- Not suitable for unaccompanied children
- No wheelchair access

This event is part-sponsored by Lough Dan House Guest Accommodation www.loughdanhouse.com

See also www.roundwoodhistoricalsociety.com
www.wicklowuplands.ie